

Arizona Telemedicine Council Speakers
Speaker Bios - July 17, 2024

1. Speaker Name: Kyle Loginbyhl, NRP, FP-C, CP-C

Organization: Gila River Health Care

Job Title: MIH Program Manager, EMS Department

Presentation Title: Providing Health Care Equity Through a Mobile Integrated Health Program

Bio: Kyle Luginbyhl's diverse career spans several public service lines including wild land firefighter to municipal battalion chief. Transitioning to critical care flight paramedic, he amassed over 2750 patient flights, beginning as an international critical care paramedic and eventually serving as a HEMS flight paramedic. Kyle also serves in the United States Army Reserve, where he's a non-commissioned officer in the distinguished Intelligence Corps, specializing in Human Intelligence Collection. Currently, as Mobile Integrated Health Program Manager at Gila River EMS, he pioneers innovative healthcare delivery. Concurrently he is pursuing a dual major degree in Nursing and Medical Studies (Pre-Med tract) at Arizona State University, showcasing his commitment to comprehensive healthcare and continuous learning.

2. Speaker Name: Nathan Carleton

Organization: Basis High School

Job Title: Basis High School Intern

Presentation Title: Monitor, Manage, Empower: Cardiac Telehealth

Bio: Nathan Carleton lives in Flagstaff, Arizona. He is currently working as an intern at Northern Arizona Healthcare (NAH) and is a recent graduate of Basis Flagstaff High School. Nathan began working at NAH for his Basis Senior Project, which aimed to understand telecardiology and its impact in Northern Arizona. He chose this project due to his passion for improving rural healthcare issues, which he has seen firsthand through his family in Arizona and Montana. Now, he enjoys continuing his research and helping NAH staff with various research projects. This fall, Nathan will begin studying Neuroscience and Cognitive Science at The University of Arizona. He plans to work in the medical field someday.

3. Speaker Name: Tim Boyd, MPH

Organization: American Speech-Language-Hearing Association (ASHA)

Job Title: Director of State Health Care and Education Affairs

Presentation Title: Stretch Your Knowledge of Telepractice: Audiology and Speech-Language Pathology Considerations

Bio: Tim Boyd has served as ASHA's Director of State Health Care and Education Affairs since 2019, part of his 18-year career in government affairs and advocacy. Before joining ASHA, Tim held roles at the National Organization for Rare Disorders and the AIDS Healthcare Foundation. Tim earned his degree in Political Science from the University of California Santa Barbara and a Master of Public Health from George Washington University.

4. Speaker Name: EJ John

Organization: American Indian Policy Institute

Job Title: Senior Research Analyst

Presentation Title: Tribal Broadband Update

Bio: E.J. is the Senior Research Analyst at the American Indian Policy Institute at Arizona State University in Phoenix, AZ. He is a member of the Navajo Nation from Vanderwagen, New Mexico. He first began working in Tribal policy in 2018 with the Navajo Nation on a wide variety of issues including community development and sustainability. E.J. now focuses on policy research to promote digital equity for Tribal communities.